Preface.

In issuing a Directory of the Edmonton district it may be well to explain that the ground covered by this publication really extends over a larger area than the Edmonton district proper, the country as far south as Red Deer being included. The publisher believes that with the exception of Mr. Spurr's small but complete work of 1895 this is the first directory ever published in Alberta, which has attempted to deal with the names and locations of settlers throughout the district named, and in this respect it has been made as complete as possible. The difficulty of procuring exact and trustworthy information has been very great owing to the lack of proper compilation by municipalities and the absence of accurate lists. Many changes have taken place since 1895, all the populous parts now being divided into school districts. Within the scope of this publication there are now no fewer than 120 of these districts, either actually organized or in course of organization. It is to the secretaries of these school districts that the publisher is indebted for a very large number of names and locations, and he here takes the opportunity of thanking these gentlemen for the valuable assistance they rendered him in perfecting the work. Had it not been for their generous assistance he would have found it impossible to have made the publication as complete as it is. It goes without saying that a work of this kind cannot be altogether free from error, but the publisher believes that he is offering the business public a book which will prove of great assistance to them, and that they will give him credit for having done his best to supply a recognized want in Northern Alberta.

Northern Alberta.

Within the borders of Northern Alberta is a practically illimitable area of the most fertile land, well timbered and well watered, and it has a clear, equable and healthful climate which makes it a pleasant country to live in. The surface of the country is gently undulating, and through the centre of the district the Saskatchewan River flows in a bed 200 feet below the level. Wood and prairie alternate irregularly. In some parts there are large plains free from timber and in others great areas of woods composed of large trees. The soil consists of a layer of from one to three feet of black vegetable mould, with little or no mixture of sand or gravel, bearing a growth of wild vegetation of a luxuriance seen in no other part of the Territories, and indeed seldom seen anywhere outside of the tropics. It is peculiar to this section of the country that the black mould is deeper on its knolls and ridges than in the hollows. With a soil of such depth and fertility, it is not wonderful that in ordinary good seasons a yield of oats of 100 to 114 weighed bushels to the acre has not been uncommon, and that less than sixty bushels is considered below the average, eighty to eighty-five bushels being an ordinary yield; that barley will yield sixty bushels and wheat over forty, and potatoes from two to three pounds weight are not a rarity. Of course, these yields have not been attained every year, nor in any year by every farmer, but they have been attained without extraordinary exertions, and prove that the capacity is in the soil if the tillage is given to bring it out. Live stock of all kinds is raised extensively, including horses of all grades, from heavy draught to Indian ponies, horned cattle, sheep, pigs and poultry. Native horses do well without stabling all the year round, but good stock of whatever kind requires good treatment to bring it to its best, when it is most profitable. There is a varied and nutritive pasture during a long season in summer; there is an abundant supply of hay procurable for winter feeding, and an abundant and universally distributed water supply. There are very few summer or winter storms, and no severe ones. Blizzards and wind storms are unknown. The winter climate is less severe than that of the districts along the Saskatchewan further east on account of the Chinook winds. As a consequence, a better class of cattle can be raised more cheaply and with less danger of loss in this district than in some other parts. The advantages which tell so heavily in favor of the district for cattle raising, tell as heavily in favor of dairying. Native fruits—wild strawberries, raspberries, gooseberries, saskatoon and cranberries, cherries and black currants—grow in profusion almost everywhere, and tobacco is successfully cultivated. All through the country small game, principally mallard and teal, prairie chicken and partridge, is plentiful, and deer may not be infrequently found. Coal of excellent quality is found throughout the whole district, from east of Medicine Hat to the Rocky Mountains, and from the international boundary to north of the Saskatchewan River, being exposed on the cut banks of the Saskatchewan, Sturgeon, White Mud and other streams in abundance, and is procurable at from sixty cents to seventy-five cents a load by the settler hauling it from the mine himself, and is delivered in the towns at from $1.50 to $2.00 per ton. Settlers can supply themselves by paying a fee in some localities ranging from ten to twenty cents a ton. There is plenty of wood for building material, and fuel in almost every part of the district. Gold is found in the bars and benches of the Saskatchewan, Smoky, and other rivers in small but paying quantities. These are known as "the poor man's diggings," and some settlers after seeding, when the water is low, turn miners and make from $1.50 to $4 per day. Dredging operations have been carried on with varying success during the past few years, and with new specially designed machines now under construction, it is confidently anticipated that even a greater reward will attend the work.

So good is the reputation that this section of the country enjoys, that settlement was made at a number of points before the railway was complete, and in 1892, when the road was in full operation, a more regular stream of settlement began. There is, however, such ample room for choice of locations that thousands can find room for selection in the free sections. This, however, will not continue to be the case for many years. They can be obtained not distant from the railway line as far north as Leduc, but around Edmonton none are obtained within an area of 20 or 25 miles. Partly improved farms can be purchased near Edmonton at from $5 per acre upwards, and railway lands within ten miles for $3.00 per acre. Bush lands are obtainable within five miles of the town.

Edmonton.

The town of Edmonton, which gives its name to the surrounding district, is in latitude 53 deg. 29 min. north, and longitude 113 deg. 49 min. west. It is, therefore, just about as far south as Liverpool, in England, Dublin in Ireland and Hamburg, in Germany.

So much has been written of the beauties of the town site in papers and pamphlets, more especially during the Yukon rush of '97 and '98, that it is unnecessary in a work of this kind to further enlarge on the natural beauties of its position, but the writer can truthfully say that in no case has he found the eulogies to have been in excess of the actual facts.

No one travelling from the east by the C. P. R. through Manitoba, can fail to be struck with the dreariness of the endless prairie, at all events between Winnipeg and Calgary. The writer can conceive nothing more desolate and depressing than the prairie proper, and it is with the greatest relief that one sees the nature of the country change as the Edmonton district is approached on the Calgary & Edmonton line. To an immigrant there must always be a feeling of home associated with trees and rolling country, where a well blended mixture of woodland and prairie is to be seen, together with small streams, rivers and lakes, all of which are to be found in the Edmonton district.

The town is built on the northern bank of the Saskatchewan River, and the view is simply perfect. The main business thoroughfare runs east to west, parallel with the river, and a minute's walk to the edge of its banks, at once discloses a lovely panoramic view. The river at this point is about 200 yards wide and lies about 200 feet below the town level. Looking across in a south-westerly direction the town of Strathcona (late South Edmonton), is visible on the opposite bank, and the piers of the new bridge, the superstructure of which is now in course of erection and due to be finished during the present autumn, can plainly be seen. The importance of this bridge to Edmonton can hardly be overrated, and its completion will be hailed with general satisfaction.

When the natural resources of the country, of which Edmonton is the centre, are taken into consideration, it needs no great gift of prophecy to predict that it must in the ordinary nature of things become a great agricultural market, and in time a very populous place, as it is now a busy centre of trade. Every year brings a larger increase in the number of immigrants, the spring of '99 having seen an unprecedented influx. Land in every direction has become more valuable, and increased immigration must farther enhance present prices. The rush to the Klondike for gold during the Autumn of '97 and spring of '98, brought travellers from all parts of the world to Edmonton, and this influx of visitors served as perhaps no other advertisement could have done to open the eyes of the world to the great possibilities of this country from an agricultural point of view, apart altogether from its promise of mineral wealth.

Until the advent of the Hudson's Bay Company, early in the present century, Edmonton was known as Fort Augustus, the trading post of the North-West Fur Trading Co., the name was then changed to Fort Edmonton. The Fort still exists upon the old site, tho' dismantled of the fortifications which made it such an important post of defence in years gone by. All the furs collected as far as the Arctic Circle by the Hudson's Bay posts and the other large fur traders, are brought to Edmonton for shipment, the total amounting in value to somewhere about $500,000 annually.

Edmonton is the centre of the fur trade, and the Americans send their agents to purchase furs from trappers and traders who make it their market during the spring and early summer months. In speaking of the fur trade in connection with Edmonton, it must always be remembered that it is the fitting out of the traders for the north, which is such a source of revenue to the town. But large and important as the fur trade must always be, it will be a secondary business when the natural wealth contained in this fertile soil comes to be fully drawn upon. At present the population of Edmonton is small, amounting only to between 2200 and 2300, but the business done in the town is out of all proportion to the number of inhabitants. The business done in farm implements and machinery during the present year has been enormous, more than doubling that of the previous year. The stranger cannot fail to notice any day of the week the farmers coming in for the most part with new wagons and making large purchases at the different implement stores. Edmonton can boast of possessing a large number of excellent business houses, some of which are large brick buildings of imposing appearance. It is lighted with electric light, has well laid out and well graded streets with good sidewalks. During the summer a large flour mill has been erected by the Dowling Milling Co., which must prove a great addition to the town, as before this was built only one existed, which was altogether inadequate to meet public needs. This year has also seen an immense improvement in the river approach to the town by way of Ross' Hill, the road having been widened, graded and gravelled. All that is now wanting is an efficient water works system, and this, with the excellent waters of the Saskatchewan close at hand should only be a question of time. That the town is well supplied with churches of all denominations will be seen by reference to church information under the heading of churches and missions. A large and well equipped hospital, free to all denominations is situated in the west end of the town, and a handsome sum has recently been subscribed to build a second one in the east end. The plans for the latter have already been completed by Messrs. Edmiston & Johnston. It will be seen from the list below that Edmonton is quite up to date in clubs and societies:—

Edmonton Street Directory.

In giving a Street Directory of the town, it is necessary to show the unoccupied lots, upon many of which, however, buildings are already in course of erection. As the town is rapidly growing up, we hope that before another work of this kind is issued the houses will have been numbered, which would greatly simplify matters. In the case of houses built on corner lots, the name of occupant will be found on both streets. The Avenues and Streets are given in the following order:

- (1) Jasper Avenue, principal business street.
- (2) Survey of River Lots 12 and 14.
- (3) River Lot 10.
- (4) Survey between Queen's Avenue and 1st Street, H. B. R.
- (5) West End, consisting of Hudson's Bay Reserve.

Strathcona.

Strathcona, until lately known as South Edmonton, is the northern terminus of the Calgary & Edmonton Railway, and is the natural outcome of the railway's advent in 1892. It is the trade centre of a large and prosperous agricultural district on the Southern banks of the Saskatchewan, and has already a population of 1,200. Situated on the opposite shore to Edmonton, and admirably laid out on a very extensive town site, it is steadily increasing in population and its town lots in value. In June of the present year it was incorporated as a town under the new name of Strathcona, and the inhabitants may be congratulated on its steady and consistent growth, more especially during the last two years. The general outlook certainly gives good grounds for hope that it will in the course of a few years become a town of great importance. Strathcona contains branches of the Imperial and Jacques Cartier Banks, and in the way of industries is well represented. First and foremost among these may be mentioned milling. Here is to be found a very large oatmeal mill, a large flour mill, in each case with elevators attached, besides two other elevators belonging to different companies. Altogether the elevators in Strathcona form quite an imposing array, and add greatly to the commercial prosperity of the town.

Another special industry is the building of dredges for gold placer mining on the Saskatchewan river. Several of these have already been built by Messrs. Walter & Humberstone and are already in operation, and recent experiments by the larger dredges point to a further large outlay of capital in this direction next year. The same firm carries on an extensive boat building and general lumber business at their river side saw mills. There is also a machine shop and foundry, two large hardware stores, dry goods stores, and as will be seen from the directory, all the general business stores necessary to make a town complete. The Strathcona Brewery is doing a large and increasing trade, and a tannery is also in operation, which by turning out good work is meeting a long felt want in the district.

There are five churches: the Church of England, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic, Baptist and Methodist and also a handsome Public School House of which the town may well be proud. Strathcona is fortunate in possessing a smart lot of go-ahead young business men, who appear in almost every instance to be making their business a success and to be laying the foundation for building up at no distant period a solid and substantial town. It will be seen from the list of clubs and societies that the town is not behind in this respect.

Good Accommodation for Travellers.

F. MARIAGGI, Prop.

Fort Saskatchewan.

Writing of this village in 1895, Mr. Spurr gives the following very good description of it: "Fort Saskatchewan, or Si-ma-gan-is, meaning "Soldier's House," as it is called by the Cree Indians, was named by the late Col. Jarvis, who, in 1874, made this the divisional point for the North-West Mounted Police and here erected a large fort and barracks, which in latter days have been much improved upon, until today, under the supervision of Superintendent A. H. Griesbach, the Fort is a small village with accommodation for eighty men and officers, has its own blacksmith shop, fire engine, canteen, telegraph offices, and is a model of discipline and neatness. The town is picturesquely situated on the south bank of the Saskatchewan, about twenty miles N.-E. of Edmonton, and is surrounded by a rich agricultural country. The river here is rich in gold, and a large number of miners are continually engaged in washing for the coveted metal when the water is at its lowest. Platinum, graphite, rubies, agates, Alaska brilliants and other minerals have also been found here."

In the vicinity of Fort Saskatchewan are numerous settlements, in which a large amount of immigration has taken place within the last few years, and there is no doubt that within a short time this district will be one of the most flourishing in Northern Alberta.

The town itself is well supplied with churches, schools, stores, hotels and livery. A good flour mill is in operation and another is about to be constructed, which will add materially to the prosperity of this busy little place.

St. Albert.

The village of St. Albert is prettily situated on the Sturgeon river about nine miles northwest of Edmonton. It is surrounded by a rich and fertile country which has been partially settled for the last quarter of a century. The river lots on the Sturgeon were largely taken up by French settlers, who now have thriving farms, rich in the products of the field and well stocked with horses, cattle, sheep and pigs. The See of St. Albert is occupied by Bishop Grandin, and the palace, convent, school and church are all situated on the north bank of the river, commanding a beautiful view of the lake, town and country. The buildings are substantial and surrounded by gardens and trees. In connection with the mission is the only peal of bells in Northern Alberta, the tones of which, ringing in the clear air, sound extremely pleasant especially to the new settler. St. Albert is a station of the N. W. M. Police, has telephone communication with Edmonton and Morinville, various societies, a juvenile brass band, several stores, and is a busy little trade centre.

Red Deer.

A town in Sections 16 and 17, Township 33, Range 27, West of the Fourth Meridian.

The Town of Red Deer is situated midway between Calgary and Edmonton, on the Calgary & Edmonton Railway. The surrounding country is gently rolling prairie, dotted here and there with clumps of spruce and poplar and interspersed with numerous rivers, streams, small lakes and fresh water springs; the soil is a rich vegetable mould, yielding good crops of wheat, oats and barley, while vegetables, roots and small fruits are raised profusely.

It is the centre of a rich agricultural, dairying, stock, coal and timber district. Already there are established in the town a Dominion Land Agency, elevators, churches, schools, Supreme Court, societies and social clubs.

Red Deer is fortunate in possessing stone quarries, which will in all probability aid in building up the town in more ways than one. for this is one of the few commodities which is not commonly found in the North-West, and for which, as towns and villages spring up, there must be a growing demand. It is here that dinner is served for passengers travelling between Edmonton and Calgary, and it may be noted that an excellent meal can be obtained at the Alberta Hotel.

Wetaskiwin.

This town, called by the Crees "We-ta-skee-win," the place where the peace was made, is 40 miles from Edmonton. It is one of the most lively and promising little burghs in Northern Alberta. Already blessed with a C. & E. railway station, two hotels, two elevators, capacity 60,000 and 20,000 respectively, a creamery and several large merchant firms carrying heavy general stocks, it needs but the completion of the flour mill now building to give Wetaskiwin all that is necessary to insure its steady growth and permanent prosperity. It is the natural business centre of a very extensive and populous ranching country, and several rich grain growing districts. Scandinavians predominate among the tributary population, but the English, French and German nationalities are also well represented. A branch of one of the leading banks is likely to be opened shortly.

Lacombe.

Is situated on the C. & E. Railway 112 miles north of Calgary centrally located in a prosperous farming, dairying and stock raising district. It has a grist mill, saw mills, government immigration building, land office and creamery, good schools and churches, four general stores, furniture store, hardware, meat market, harness shop, drug store, lumber yard, two livery stables and excellent hotel and boarding houses. The spring of '99 has seen Lacombe booming, a large number of settlers having located in the vicinity. Good homestead lands can be got from seven to fifteen miles from the village. Farmers already settled here report well of the country, which appears to offer all natural inducements to successful farming operations. The district is well wooded and well watered with lakes, running streams and natural springs. Hay is also very abundant in Leduc.

A station on the Calgary and Edmonton railway, distant from Edmonton twenty and from Calgary 173 miles.

No place between Calgary and Edmonton has come more rapidly to the front than Leduc. Until the spring of '99 nothing was to be seen from the railway but the elevators and a few small dwelling houses. At the time of writing quite an active village has sprung up. There is already an excellent hotel, livery, two good general stores, a hardware, a grocery, drugs and stationery, blacksmith, shoe store, lumber yard and implement shed, also two churches and a school. Situated in an excellent agricultural district, where the soil consists of a rich dark loam of great depth with clay sub-soil, immense crops can be grown both of grain and roots, and it is not wonderful that there has been a considerable rush of immigration to this vicinity during the last few months. Everything points to the complete settlement of this part of Alberta in the near future. Free homesteads can still be obtained from 12 to 15 miles of the village, and C. P. R. land can be purchased at the usual very low rates. The Public School System.

The management of the school system in the Territories is vested in a council of Public Instruction, consisting of four members of the local government and four appointed members without votes—two Protestant and two Roman Catholics. A school district comprises an area of not more than twenty-five square miles, and must contain not less than four resident ratepayers and twelve children between the ages of five and sixteen, inclusive. Any three qualified ratepayers may petition for the formation of a school district, and upon its proclamation the ratepayers therein may establish a school and elect trustees to manage it. These trustees have power to erect and equip buildings, engage certificated teachers, levy taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary for the proper conduct of a school. The classes of schools established are denominated Public and Separate. The minority of the ratepayers in any organized public school district, whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, may establish a separate school therein, and in such case the ratepayers establishing such Protestant or Roman Catholic separate school, shall be liable only to assessment of such rates as they impose upon themselves in respect thereof. Any person who is legally assessed or assessable for a public school shall not be liable to assessment for any separate school established therein. Schools are maintained by legislative grants and by local taxation. The school year for which grants may be paid does not exceed 210 teaching days. The legislative grant is paid as follows: For each day a school (with an average attendance of at least six pupils) is open, $1.40; for every pupil in average daily attendance an additional grant of $1.50 per school year; for a teacher holding a second-class certificate 10 cents, or a first-class certificate, 20 cents for each day such teacher is actually engaged in teaching; to each school according to its grading on inspector's reports a sum not exceeding 15 cents per day. The grant paid in no case exceeds 70 per cent. of the salary earned by the teacher. High schools receive a special additional grant of $75 per term. In the programme of studies provision is made for teaching the elementary subjects, and such additional subjects as are required for teachers examinations and university matriculation. The last half hour of school may be devoted to such religious instruction as the trustees may determine.

Land System.

Manitoba and the Northwest Territories have now been accurately surveyed by the Dominion Government, and parcelled out into square and uniform lots on the following plan: The land is divided into "townships" six miles square. Each township contains thirty-six "sections" of 640 acres, or one square mile each section, and these are again subdivided into quarter sections of 160 acres. A road allowance, one chain wide, is provided for between each section running north and south, and between every alternate section east and west.

The following is a plan of a township:

Each square contains 640 acres; each quarter section contains 160 acres.

FREE HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even-numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over eighteen years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Ottawa, or any local agent, receive authority for some one to make the entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for an ordinary homestead entry; but for lands which have been occupied an additional fee of $5.00, and in some cases $10, is chargeable to meet inspection and cancellation expenses.

The entry must be perfected within six months of its date by the settler beginning to reside upon and cultivate the land, unless entry is obtained after the 1st of September, in which case it need not be perfected before the 1st day of June following.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.

After perfecting his Homestead Entry as described, the settler must continue to reside upon and cultivate the land for which he holds entry for three years from the date thereof, during which period he may not be absent from the land for more than six months in any one year without forfeiting the entry. (A son living on his father's homestead is exempted from residence).

Upon furnishing proof; which must be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, that he has fulfilled the conditions as to residence and cultivation before specified, the settler will be entitled to a patent from the Crown for his homestead, provided he is a British subject by birth or naturalization.

If the homesteader desires to obtain his patent within a shorter period than three years; he will be permitted to purchase his homestead at the government price ruling at the time, upon proof that he has resided thereon for twelve months from the date of perfecting entry, and that he has brought at least thirty acres under cultivation.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT.

may be made before the local agent, sub-agent, or any homestead inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Ottawa, of his intention to do so. SYNOPSIS OF THE REGULATIONS FOR THE DISPOSAL OF QUARTZ MINING CLAIMS ON DOMINION LANDS IN MANITOBA AND THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES (INCLUDING THE YUKON TERRITORY).

Every person 18 years of age and over, but not under, and every joint stock company holding a Free Miner's Certificate, may obtain an entry for a mining location.

A Free Miner's Certificate is granted for one year and is not transferable. The fee for a Free Miner's Certificate for an individual is $10, and for a Free Miner's Certificate to a joint stock company, from $50 to $100, according to the nominal capital of the company.

The holder of a Free Miner's Certificate who has discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim not exceeding 1,500 feet long by 1,500 feet wide, by marking it with two legal posts, one at each end, on the line of the lode, or vein, and marking out the line between them. Upon each post shall be marked the name of the claim, the name of the person locating and the date, and the number of feet lying to the right and left of the line.

The claim shall be recorded with the Mining Recorder of the District within which it is situated, within 15 days after the location thereof, if located within ten miles of the office of the Recorder; one additional day shall be allowed for such record for every additional 10 miles or fraction thereof. In the event of a claim being more than 100 miles from a Recorder's office and situated where other claims are being located, the Free Miners, not less than five in number, may appoint a Free Miner's recorder, but if the latter fails within three months to notify the nearest Government Mining Recorder of his appointment, the claims which he may have recorded will be cancelled.

The fee for recording a claim is $5.

An expenditure of not less than $100 per year must be made on the claim, or a like amount paid to the Mining Recorder in lieu thereof. When $500 has been expended or paid in connection with the location, the locator may, upon having a survey thereof made and upon complying with certain other requirements, purchase the land at the rate of $5 per acre cash, but if the surface rights have already been disposed of, at $2 an acre.

A location for the mining of iron, mica and copper, not exceeding 160 acres in area, may be granted, provided that should any Free Miner obtain a location which subsequently is found to contain a valuable mineral deposit other than iron, mica or copper, his right in such deposit shall be restricted to the area prescribed for other minerals, and the remainder of the location shall revert to the Crown.

The patent for a mining location shall reserve to the Crown forever, whatever royalty may hereafter be imposed on the sales of the products of all mines therein, and the same royalty shall be collected on the sales which may be made prior to the issue of the patent.

A liberal supply of timber for house building purposes and fuel is granted free to settlers on payment of a small office fee for the permit to cut.

For full information as to the conditions of tender, and sale of timber, coal or other mineral lands, apply to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Ont., or to any of the Dominion Land Agents, Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.
